Dedication

We dedicate this, our annual, to a person who inspired, understood and patiently guided us throughout our school years. To you, Mrs. Lucy Leonard, we're taking this opportunity to show our appreciation for the many good deeds you have done for us. Besides being a moral supporter, counselor and teacher, you have been a friend.

CLASS HISTORY

Coming events cast their shadows before, to the prophet, not so the historian. To the person who writes of the happenings and events in the life of the class of nineteen hundred and sixty-one, the age must turn backward, and the mind must let us glance back for a few minutes to the happy years we have spent at Ramseur High School and see that the history that we shall leave behind will not cause regret to a single member.

After eight happy years in the elementary grades during which time we had trips to Chapel Hill and Raleigh we were ready for high school.

The year of nineteen hundred and fifty-seven saw forty-seven new "green horns" enter high school. We elected as our class officers the following: Bill Smith, president; Terry Cox, vice-president; Susan Brady, secretary; Linda Caudle, treasurer; and Rae Hodgin, Student Council Representative.

Mr. Robert E. Spencer was our homeroom teacher in our first attempt at higher education.

Summer vacation and then we became Sophomores in nineteen hundred and fifty-eight with Mr. Bobby E. Godwin as homeroom teacher. There were thirty-eight of us, and this year we added to our high school several students from Stanley.

We elected for our officers Bill Smith, president; Albert Lineberry, vice-president; Linda Caudle, secretary; Rae Hodgin, treasurer; and Faye Cain, Student Council Representative. Linda Caudle was also elected secretary of the Student Council.

One unusual incident of this year was the fact that five girls of our class had appendicitis.

Another year gone and we were juniors with Mrs. Leo W. Rich and Mr. James D. Hamilton as our sponsors. We were very busy this year, selling magazines and having bake sales to pay for our Junior-Senior Banquet, "Evening in Hawaii" at the Mayfair Cafeteria in Greensboro.

Our junior officers were these: Bill Smith, president; Charles Hodgin, vice-president; Faye Cain, secretary; and Reba Kirkman, treasurer. Other representatives were the following: Linda Caudle, vice-president of Student Council; Billy Joe Allen as our class representative and Faye Cain as a special representative.

Seniors! This was a new name for all of us in nineteen hundred and sixty, but one we gladly accepted as that final year began with Mrs. R. C. White as our sponsor.

We ordered our class rings in late September and elected Kathy Gail Cherry and Paul Wesley Kivett as mascots.

Our officers are Billy Joe Allen, president; Junior Kidd, vice-president; Winona Gibson, secretary; Frankie Wright, treasurer; and Terry Cox, reporter.

Linda Caudle was elected president of the Student Council and Alice Isley, representative.

We chose our class colors, red and white; and class flower, red rose.

"Today we follow, tomorrow we lead" was selected as our class motto.

We attended the State Fair in Raleigh and toured the nation's capital, Washington, D. C.

We have worked hard to reach our goal; but I know that when we graduate, we shall all want to turn back the hands of time to that September day in nineteen hundred and forty-nine when we entered school. This was also the year that Mr. C. A. Cox became our principal.

This is to you, dear classmates, best wishes to each of you through the coming years; may each of you go forward to the highest goal and always cherish the memory of the class of nineteen hundred and sixty-one.

To you, beloved teachers, deep gratitude for all you have done.

And you, our parents, thank you, for everything.

Historian,

Rae Hodgin

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the members of the 1960-61 Senior Class of Ramseur High School, realizing that our days at our old Alma Mater are rapidly drawing to a close, and being of sound mind and body, do hereby make and bequeath to the aforementioned, our legal and rightful heirs, this, our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To our loving parents, we bequeath our love and our sincerest thanks, for we know that without their help and guidance through the years, we could not have succeeded.

ARTICLE II

SECTION I: We bequeath to our beloved principal, Mr. C. A. Cox, our utmost appreciation for his twelve years of wonderful guidance.

SECTION II: To our faculty, we leave our many thanks for their time and efforts to make each of us a success in life.

ARTICLE III

SECTION I: To the Juniors, we leave our title, "Dignified Seniors", in the hope that they will live up to it as well as we have.

SECTION II: To the Sophomores, we leave our quick wit and intelligence, hoping that some of each will rub off on them for the years to come.

SECTION III: We bequeath to the Freshmen the chance of being upperclassmen next year and all the privileges that go with it.

ARTICLE IV

Individually, we bequeath the following:

I, Billy Joe Allen, do leave all of my presidencies gladly to anyone who is willing to make the same mistake I did.

I, Mary Berry, do will my ability to get into trouble to Sara Coble.

I, Randy Brooks, do will my ability to get along with Mr. Cox to Hampton Spivey and my love for Duke University to Bill Jones.

I, Linda Burch, do gladly will my French book back to Mrs. Rich.

I, Clarice Burgess, do will my title "Most Courteous" to little sister, Faye, to keep it in the family.

I, Wilma Carmac, do leave my position as Class Editor of the Annual Staff to my sister Judy, to keep it in the family.

I, Linda Caudle, do will my title, "Most Likely to Succeed", to Mamie Faye Joyce and my basketball suit to anyone who loves basketball as much as I do.

I, Judy Coble, do leave my typewriter and shorthand book to my brother, Eugene, to keep them in the family.

I, Evon Cox, do leave my bus to Eddie Barber in hopes he will enjoy it as much as I have and my superlative, "Most Talented", to Diane Lineberry. I will my typewriter to Judy Dixon and my position as typist on the Annual Staff to anyone with the patience to undertake the task.

I, Martha Cox, do will my title, "Most Athletic," to Toni Cox, to keep it in the family, and to Judy Allen, I will my position on the basketball team. My typewriter I leave to my namesake.

I, Terry Cox, do leave my position in the Beta Club to Mickey Whitehead, my title, "Most Talented", to anyone who deserves it and my position in the "Big Four" to Doyle Allred. To my brother, Jeff, I leave all the rights and privileges of being the older brother in school for a change.

I, Charles Lee Edwards, do will my bus to Jackie Embre or Sara Coble, depending upon which one is willing to take the bigger chance, and my title, "Friendliest", to Carol Faye Williams.

I, David Frazier, do leave my ability to get off school for half a day to work on the farm to Tommy Conrad, my catcher's mitt to next year's receiver and my ability to study to Tommy Heilig and Johnny Langley.

I, Winona Gibson, do will my two superlatives, "Most Intellectual", to Carol Faye Williams and "Best All around", to Toni Cox. I leave my Physics dunce stool to anyone who sits on it as much as I have.

I, Winfred Heilig, do leave my typewriter to anyone who can type and my love for Staley to my brother, Tommy.

I, Darius Hicks, do leave my position in the F.H.A. to Judy Allen and my titles, "Miss R. H. S.", to Kelly Watkins, and "Most Dependable", to Susan Sillmon.

I, Rae Hodgin, do will my ability to get along with Coach Godwin to anyone who needs it and my love for Coleridge to anyone who loves it as much as I do.

I, Charles Hodgin, do leave my place on the football team to anyone who can fill it. I leave my height to Eddie Kinney.

I, Alice Isley, do leave my ability to make good grades to my sister, Betty, (although she certainly doesn't need it) and my title, "Most Original", to my brother, Ray. To Eddie Kinney I leave the responsibility of keeping the Student Council on the ball.

I, Gene Joyce, do will my typewriter to my brother, Paul, to keep it in the family and my desk and its contents to Mamie Faye Joyce.

I, Betty Jo Julian, do leave my position in the Beta Club to my sister, Mary Louise, and my ability to get along with Mr. Gallemore to Roger York.

I, Junior Kidd, do leave my title, "Most Intellectual", to anyone smart enough to claim it and my bus to anyone with nerve enough to drive it.

I, Reba Kirkman, do will my title, "Neatest", to my sister, Diane, to keep it in the family and my position as chief-cheerleader to Betty Brown.

I, Albert Lineberry, do leave my title, "Best All Around" to Bill Jones, my membership in the Triple "A" Club to Eric Allred and the rest I take with me.

I, Junior Loveday, do will my ability to skip English for the World Series to M. C. Coble and my typewriter to Neal Gibson.

I, Pat Richardson, do leave my position with the cheerleaders to anyone with a big enough mouth to take it and my title, "Wittiest", to Ann Norton.

I, Becky Smith, do leave my superlative, "Friendliest", to Betty Brown and my ability to blush at the wrong time to anyone who happens to acquire the habit.

I, Bill Smith, do will my title, "Neatest", to Tommy Conrad and my position as co-captain of the football team to M. C. Coble.

I, Larry Stout, do leave my title, "Most Dependable", to Mickey Whitehead and my position on the football team to that future All-American, Gordon Brady.

I, Wayne Stutts, do will my title, "Most Athletic", to Eddie Kinney, my love for U. N. C. to Jimmy Ellison and my "Triple A" membership to "Buck" Stout. The rest I leave, but I take Darius with me.

I, Roger Ward, do leave my ability to throw erasers through windows to anyone with a good arm and my title, "Wittiest", to Tony Jessup.

I, Frankie Wright, do leave to go to the dentist. I also leave my title, "Most Original", to M. C. Coble and my "Triple A" membership to Gordon Brady.

I, Jack York, do will my basketball uniform to Eddie Kinney and my bus to Sammy Williams, if it lasts until next year.

ARTICLE V

Lastly, we do hereby appoint Mrs. Martha White to be the sole administrator of this will and instruct her to carry out to the letter of the law the aforementioned articles. In her witness and in the witness of the students of Ramseur High School we, the members of the graduating class of the school year 1960-61, have set our hand and seal on this, the last day of May in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty one.

Testator:
Terry Cox

CLASS MOTTO

Today we follow;
Tomorrow we lead.

CLASS POEM

Time moves on to our departure day
When we will seek and hopefully face
The path before us and take our place.
We will strive to do right and be gay.

When we glance backward through the years
Before us many memories unfold.
Through the years they will oft be told
For each one to our hearts is very dear.

Thank you, parents, teachers, and friends,
For your guidance and helpfulness.
You helped us find happiness
And our love for you knows no end.

Now Time does bid us say goodbye
And not one eye is free from tears
We want you to know who are left here
We love and will cherish Ramseur High.

Class Poet
Linda Caudle

CLASS SONG

It's Almost Tomorrow

It's almost tomorrow,
But what can we do?
Our time is all over;
It's now left to you.
Our lips won't be smiling;
Our eyes will not shine;
For we know tomorrow that
We'll leave you behind.

Our school days have ended;
It's now time to go.
Our best wishes we leave
To you we love so.
It's almost tomorrow
For here comes the sun,
But still we are hoping that
Tomorrow won't come.

CLASS PROPHECY

Looking through the keyhole of the world, the guardian angel of the class of '61 sees many changes among the members of the class. Beginning the journey in the town of Ramseur, she finds several who remained there to work for the betterment of the community. First of all she visits the new Ramseur High School. Junior Kidd is principal of the school. Among Mr. Kidd's faculty she sees Charles Edwards as music and dance instructor.

Continuing the journey, the angel glances at her watch. It's four minutes past the fourteenth hour, 1973, courtesy of Winfred Heilig watches.

Lawyer Randy Brooks is defending Wayne Stutts, Jr., who has been charged with chewing gum in school. Martha Cox is Randy's executive secretary. She is a pretty and efficient one.

Our angel visits Mr. & Mrs. Wayne Stutts, Mrs. Stutts being the former Darius Hicks. She is a fine hair stylist and Wayne is author of, My Secret Of Achieving Fame As A Salesman For The Upside-Down Pineapple Cake Mix Company.

In Chapel Hill a very interesting football game is in progress. The Carolina coach is none other than Ramsuer's Bill Smith.

Becky "Termite" Smith owns the largest circus of trained termites in North Carolina.

As the travels proceed north, the angel finds Billy Joe Allen as President of the United States. While in high school Billy Joe made the statement, "I'll not be president of another thing."

The World Series is taking place in New York City at Yankee Stadium. Frankie Wright is sports forecaster. The class of '61 knew Frankie's talking abilities were unlimited. He has proved this by being named "America's Chatter Box."

The greatest show on Broadway stars the talented Coxes of Ramseur, Evon and Terry. Roger Ward is producer of the show. He's assisted by Reba Kirkman, his high school sweetheart.

North of the border in the chilly country of Canada, Judy Coble has taken her discontented cows for a vacation. She hopes the change in climate will make them contented so the Coble Dairy Products will continue operation.

In Los Angeles, Patricia Richardson models multi-color wigs for her fashion stories.

Junior Loveday is in the oil business in Texas. He has changed his name to Junior Loves-Million-Dollars-A-Day.

David Frazier owns a large goat ranch in Texas.

In Miami, Florida, Winona Gibson is Director of Nurses at the Hospital for crippled bulldogs.

Albert Lineberry is preparing for a flight to the moon. If successful, his name will go down in history as the first earth man to become a moon man.

Clarice Burgess teaches the African natives habits, customs, and the language of the French. She is putting to use her two years of French at R. H. S.

In India, Eugene Joyce is known for his agricultural aspects, especially pigs and dogs.

Returning to North Carolina, the angel finds Mary Berry married. Mary is a capable homemaker for her husband and seven children.

Larry Stout is a commercial teacher at Asheboro Commercial College.

Betty Julian designs clothes for ladies. Her top model is Alice Isley. Alice looks lovely in the new type evening clothes.

Linda Caudle, still wearing a 1960 Coleridge class ring, acts as secretary to Dr. Charles Hodgin.

Linda Burch tests sun lamps. She has finally learned that sun lamps can burn your skin.

Rae Hodgin, mayor of the town of Coleridge, is the first lady mayor in the history of the town.

The guardian angel is well pleased with the results of her survey.

We, the Senior Class, wish to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has made this annual possible.

We would like to thank the students and faculty for their loyal support, co-operation and unselfish use of time.

We would also like to express our appreciation to the merchants of Randolph County, for without their support our annual would not have been possible.
